
5.4 THE OWAMBO FLAG

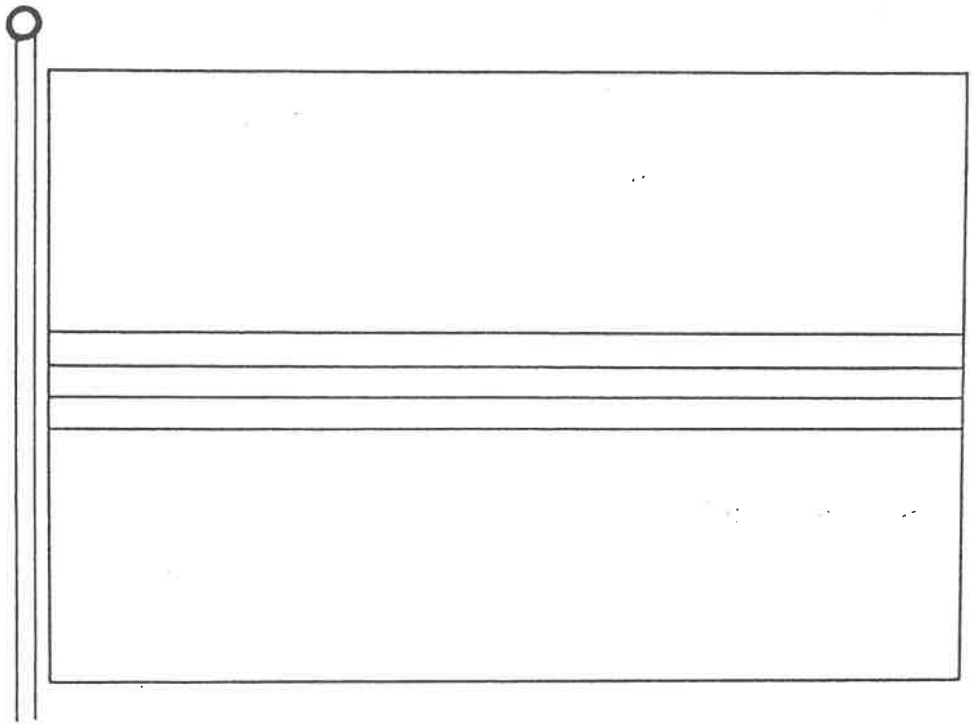
The design of the flag of Owambo is set out in section 2 of the Owambo Flag Act, 1973 (Act No. 7 of 1973), which reads as follows:

2.(1) The Owambo Flag shall be a flag consisting of three horizontal stripes of equal width from top to bottom blue, white and olive-green, on which there shall appear, in the centre of the white stripe, seven vertical olive-green staves of equal measurement symmetrically arranged.

(2)(a) The width of the Owambo Flag shall be equal to two-thirds of its length.

(b) The width of each vertical stave shall be equal to one-twentieth of the length of the Flag.

(c) The distance between the vertical stave mutually and between the vertical staves and the blue and olive green stripes shall be equal to half the width of a stave.



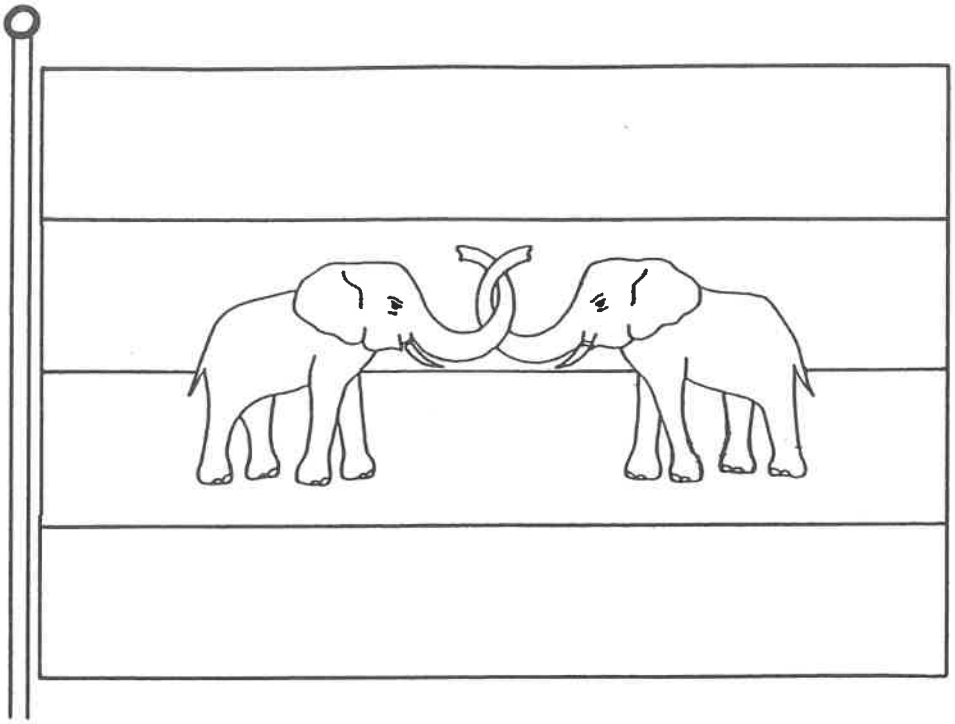
5.6 THE KAVANGO FLAG

The design of the flag of Kavango is set out in section 2 of the Kavango Flag Act, 1973 (Act No. 5 of 1973), which reads as follows:

2.(1) The Kavango Flag shall be green with three horizontal stripes of equal width in the centre which from top to bottom shall be orange, white and blue.

(2)(a) The width of the Kavango Flag shall be equal to two-thirds of its length.

(b) The width of the three horizontal stripes shall be one-sixth of the width of the Flag.



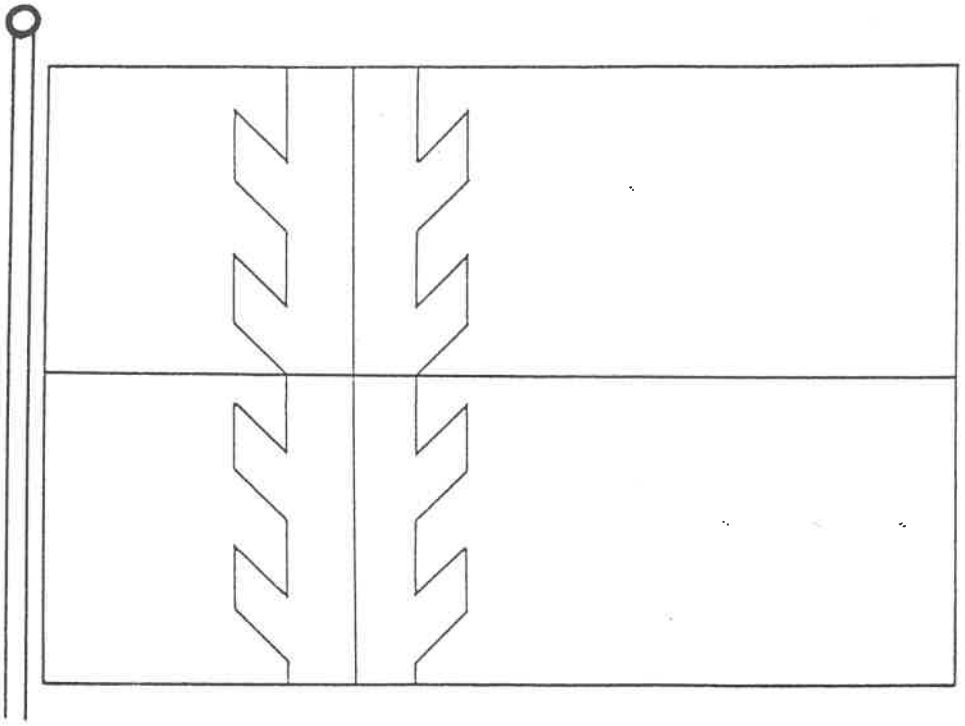
5.8 THE CAPRIVI FLAG

The design of the flag of Caprivi is set out in section 2 of the Caprivi Flag Act, 1977, which reads as follows:

2.(1) The Caprivi Flag shall be a flag consisting of four horizontal stripes of equal width, from top to bottom black, white, green and blue, on which there shall appear, in the centre of the Flag on the white and green stripes, two black elephants of equal size facing each other with their trunks raised, the front halves thereof entwined once around each other with only the tips thereof raised above the height of their heads.

(2) The height of the elephants shall be two thirds of the width of two stripes.

(3) The width of the Caprivi Flag shall be equal to two thirds of its length.



5.10 THE PROPOSED FLAG FOR THE DAMARAS

The design of the flag proposed for the Damaras, is derived from the shield of arms prepared for the Legislative Assembly. It is in the proportion of 3 in the length to 2 in the width and may be described as follows:

"Quarterly per Scandanavian cross, white and brown, the intersection surmounted by a pale raguly of eight, counterchanged, the projections opposite each other".